CAR FENDER DAMAGED BY HIGHWAY GRADER

City police report that a traffic mishap occurred at 4:15 p. m. Monday just north of the Washington street intersection on College Avenue.

A state highway truck, driven by Ralph Hammond, pulling a heavy road grader turned off of Washington on College. Due to the fact that a Studebaker sedan, owned by William Peck, was parked on the west side of College about 30 feet north of Washington, police said there was not enough room for the grader and it tore up the left front fender of the car.

Police pointed out that no parking allowed on the west side of College Avenue from Washington to the state highway garage from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m. in order to provide room for the heavy road equipment.

Legion Urges All To Vote

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 26.—(INS)—The Indiana department of the American Legion made another appeal today to all citizens to vote at next Tuesday's election. A Legion statement said, in part:

"There is not doubt that subversive groups are working toward the downfall of our form of government. They are always active around election time. The objective of this subversive element is to prevent peace in Europe and to make the United States, Great Britain and France look bad before other nations.

"They will report back to their bosses in Russia that the most glaring weakness in our form of government is the failure of our citizens to exercise their privilege of voting."

Many Charges Hurled At GOP By President

EN ROUTE WITH DEWEY, Oct. 26.—(UP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey set out today to prove his charges that President Truman is deliberately playing class-against-class in an effort to stay in the White House.

The GOP presidential candidate has denounced repeatedly what he considers Democratic efforts to divide the nation for election purposes, even during critical times in foreign relations.

He was expected to hammer at this theme tonight when he speaks in Chicago at 10 p. m. (EST).

Dewey left Albany last night after a three-day rest during which he felled a severe head cold and brought about improvement in an attack of bursitis in his right shoulder.

He was scheduled to arrive in Chicago at 5 p. m. (EST). Chicago is the first big stop on a four-day tour of seven states. It will include four major speeches at Chicago, Cleveland, Boston and New York.

In his speech tonight Dewey will stress the nationally important interdependence of business, labor and agriculture in this country.

"The governor will discuss the way each of these elements of our society depends on each other, and show how government policies friendly to each will help build a healthy, vigorous America," according to Paul Lockwood, the governor's secretary. (Continued on Page Three)

Demand Jews Give Up Negev

PARIS, Oct. 26.—(UP)—The United Nations demanded today that Israel give up the Negev towns and territory won from the Egyptians in the short-lived campaign which began in south Palestine on Oct. 14.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, acting UN mediator for Palestine, announced his demand that the Israeli forces withdraw from their newly won position at an emergency meeting of the Security Council, called to hear Egyptian charges of Israeli truce violations.

The request for the realignment of armed forces in south Palestine as they were Oct. 14 was addressed in Bunche's name to both the Jews and the Arabs yesterday. But the Jews had scored the only appreciable gains, and it was to them that the UN move applied.

MEMORIAL STONE UNLOADING ATTRACTS MANY

This scene shows only a few of the several hundred who watched the unloading of the five-ton piece of Bedford limestone which will make the base of the VFW World War II memorial being erected in the courthouse yard. A huge crane was used in the process. It first worked from the street and then from the court house yard, it lifted the stone into place. Work of completing the Memorial will be done this week.

Arab Bombers Raided Haifa

HAIFA, Oct. 26.—(UP)—Arab bombers raided the Haifa Bay area last night, dropping about 12 bombs and causing considerable damage to major oil refineries located there, it was reported today.

Sporadic anti-aircraft fire was heard throughout the evening.

An air raid alarm was sounded in Jerusalem at 9:50 p. m. The all clear sounded 50 minutes later. No damage was reported.

Dispatches from Cairo quoted Premier Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha that Egyptian troops in the Negev desert region of southern Palestine had repulsed fresh attacks by Israeli troops at several points.

A United Nations Security Council cease-fire has been in effect in the region since last week.

King Opens Parliament

LONDON, Oct. 26.—(UP)—King George VI asked the new session of the British parliament today to nationalize the vast British iron and steel industry.

Opening parliament amid medieval pomp and splendor which Britain has not seen since 1938, the King announced to a joint session of Commons and Lords that the government will introduce a steel nationalization bill during this session.

DEWEY SPEAKS IN WINDY CITY THIS EVENING

EN ROUTE WITH PRESIDENT TRUMAN, Oct. 26.—(UP)—President Truman headed toward Cleveland today with a challenge to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey to answer his charge that "powerful reactionary forces" are trying to set up a Fascist dictatorship in America through the Republican party.

The President campaigned through Illinois, Indiana and Ohio on his way to Cleveland where he makes another big speech tonight.

Dewey was hot on the President's trail. The GOP candidate speaks tonight from the same Chicago platform where Mr. Truman appeared last night and follows him into Cleveland for a speech tomorrow evening.

In his major campaign address last night, Mr. Truman said the same type forces that supported Hitler in Germany, Mussolini in Italy and Tojo in Japan are working through the Republican party now to establish their kind of government here.

The President gave his speech after almost 1,000,000 Chicagoans turned out to give him the biggest, most unqualified welcome accorded a political candidate in the history of the city. The celebration even outshone the big doings displayed for the late Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Chief of uniformed police Roy D. Crane estimated that 750,000 people lined the route of a 2 1/2 hour parade which Mr. Truman (Continued on Page Three)

Canada Will Cooperate in Security Pact

MILITARY IS COORDINATING WITH OTHER WESTERN POWERS

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 26.—(UP)—Canada's military forces are being coordinated with other western powers to fit into a North Atlantic security pact against "a war of aggression by the Soviets," according to defense minister Brooke Claxton.

He told the United Nations Association of Canada last night that World War II would have been prevented if such a pact had been in existence in 1935.

"The Soviet attitude since the end of the war," he said, "has driven and is driving the western democracies into the same kind of union to preserve the peace as was needed to win the war. It is a defensive union. No one of these countries has aggressive intentions, and Russian distortion will not alter that fact."

He said that as the Western European union becomes stronger, the chance of war will become less.

"The existence of a North Atlantic Security pact of mutual assistance including the United States and Canada would further reduce the chance of Soviet success," Claxton said.

He assured his listeners that "any such arrangement as a North Atlantic Security pact will be submitted to parliament for its approval" and that no commitments would be made without parliament approval.

"We are planning our defenses after consultation with others," he said, "so that what we do will fit into any subsequent plan that may be arrived at after parliament has given its approval to Atlantic security."

PARIS, Oct. 26.—(INS)—The western powers opened a United Nations assault on Communism in Greece and elsewhere today during a "mark-time" period on the Berlin crisis.

The United States, Great Britain and France were reported agreed to give Russia additional time to life the Berlin blockade despite yesterday's Soviet veto of a compromise resolution.

At an emergency session of the Security Council, Jews and Arabs accused each other of responsibility for continuing hostilities in Palestine.

PARIS, Oct. 26.—(INS)—French troops and striking miners exchanged gunfire today in a new flareup of violence in the Communist-led strikes.

One person was killed and eight wounded when troops and police moved to oust strikers from barricaded pitheads near Ales, in the Loire coal basin.

KNOWS "DOC" WITTEN

In the November issue of the Reader's Digest is an article by Dorothy Walworth, "Doc Witten's Family Tree." Doc Witten is a busy doctor of North Tazewell, Virginia. He is a bachelor and is celebrated for his having raised 152 motherless boys, besides being a good doctor.

North Tazewell Va. is only a couple of miles from the mountain home of Mrs. J. O. Cammack and she has known Dr. Witten all her life, in fact went to school with him when they were youngsters.

She says the article is very good as to the facts, and that "Dr. Jack" and his boys are looked up to by every one in that part of the state. It is considered marvelous how he being a bachelor and a busy doctor, could accomplish so much. None of "his boys have ever done anything to bring discredit to themselves or to their "dad."

New Deaconess

A very beautiful and unique tea was given Sunday, Oct. 24th, from 4-6 at the home of Mrs. Chapman, honoring Mrs. Gertrude Woods of Bethel A. M. E. church, who was ordained a deaconess at the general conference by the Rite Rev. Bishop Baber of the Fourth Episcopal District, Oct. 3rd.

The house was artistically decorated with white button chrysanthemums. This color scheme was carried out in the table center, the cloth and the serving. Crystal candle sticks graced the table with long white candles. The only color on the table was the assorted cookies and the sterling silver tea and coffee server, Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell of Plainfield and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods were in the receiving line. OBJECTS TO FILM

SIoux CITY, Ia., Oct. 26.—(UP)—Nineteen clergymen, teachers and civic leaders met today to review the motion picture "Rope" and decide whether it should be banned from Sioux City theaters.

The movie treats the psychological aspects of a "thrill" murder. Mayor Dan J. Conley said the Parent Teachers Council objected to the picture and asked that the 19-man review and advisory committee pass on it.

TRUMAN

As an added bid for labor support, the governor will be introduced in Chicago Stadium by William L. McFetridge, president of the AFL Building Service Employees Union. National leadership of this union has announced support of Dewey.

Dewey scheduled no stops in Indiana today, although his train will pass through the state. The states in which he will speak have a total electoral vote of 128, including New York, Illinois, Ohio, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut. He is a favorite in all of these but Rhode Island. The number of electoral votes required to win is 266.

The GOP candidate followed by one day virtually the same campaign itinerary over which Mr. Truman was moving in the campaign windup this week.

All indications were that Dewey has no intention of answering "in kind" the political invective which Mr. Truman has been heaping on the Republicans. Although Mr. Truman described Dewey's stumping last night as "soap bubble campaign promises," the New York governor planned to go ahead with his pleas for national unity and promises to bring "competence" to the federal government.

Dwight Green, the Republican governor of Illinois, will welcome Dewey to Chicago today. The presidential aspirant will spend the night in Chicago before starting for Ohio at noon EST tomorrow.

This train will stop at Toledo in the afternoon to pick up a large group of Ohio Republicans and proceed to Cleveland where Dewey was scheduled to arrive at 5 p. m. tomorrow. His speech from Cleveland was scheduled for 9 p. m. (EST) tomorrow night.

led from his Loop hotel to the Chicago Stadium where he spoke on the west side.

Local politicians staged one of the most exciting spectacles since the Chicago fire of 1871 with red flares every few feet along the line of march, aerial bombs and pyrotechnic portraits of Mr. Truman and vice-presidential candidate Alben W. Barkley. They had promised to turn downtown Chicago into a "seething mass of flame" for the occasion and just about succeeded.

The stadium was jammed with

Marquess Arrives

ARRIVING in New York on a business trip is the Marquess of Milford Haven, whose name has been inked romantically with Princess Margaret Rose and who has also been frequently seen acquiring Sharmar Douglas, daughter of the United States ambassador, in London. (International)

5,000 cheering citizens who waited hours to hear the President. They gave him a rousing standing ovation when he appeared. Another 100,000, more or less, crowded into parking lots and nearby streets to hear the speech over loudspeakers.

Mr. Truman hinted that the next step on the program of the alleged "powerful forces" trying to establish a dictatorship would be to find a man to act as figurehead for the movement.

"When a few men get control of the economy of the nation," he said, "they find a 'front man' to run the country for them. Before Hitler came to power, control over the German economy had passed into the hands of a small group of rich manufacturers, bankers and landowners. There men decided that Germany had to have a tough and ruthless dictator who would play their game and crush the strong German labor unions. So they put money and influence behind Adolph Hitler. We know the rest of the story."

He charged that the three groups seeking national control were "working through the Republican party" and constitute a more serious threat than "the Communist minority" or the "crackpot forces of the extreme right wing."

Dewey took no official cognizance of Mr. Truman's charges but his campaign manager, Herbert Brownell, Jr., issued a statement accusing the President of "falsehoods," "hypocrisy," and "mud-slinging." He did not say whether he had cleared the statement with Dewey.

Looking at Life

Erich Brandeis

It may have something to do with the weather, but for some reason or other I don't seem to be able to take anything very seriously today.

Goodness knows, the headlines are scary enough.

War may break out any minute, says one of them. But then again it may not, say I to myself.

There is another hurricane in Florida. It may strike Connecticut tomorrow. But then again it may not, say I to myself.

Maybe it is approaching old age, but I can't get myself all riled up about possibilities and perhaps any more.

I guess I feel a little like Faris el Khouri, the United Nations delegate from Syria, who had said something in a fiery address that had made Vishinsky of Russia mad.

So Vishinsky got up and, with his usual vehemence, yelled his head off and called Faris el Khouri all kinds of names.

With wild gestures he pointed at Khouri accusingly only to find that the Syrian delegate was fast asleep in his chair.

Alexander Parodi of France nudged him back to wakefulness—but Vishinsky's ranting had lost all of its power. The other delegates smiled; Vishinsky sat down in fustian disgust and, I suppose, El Khouri went back to sleep.

I also feel a bit sorry for both Truman and Dewey, who are trying so hard, one to stay in the White House, the other to get here.

I'd like to look in on the Trumans some time late in the evening when President Truman is just Harry Truman, sitting in his socks to give those weary feet a rest.

I can just hear him say to Bess, "Gosh, those feet of mine hurt me, and my hands are all swollen from having ten thousand people shake them all day."

And Bess might well reply: "Yes, sometimes I wish we were back in Independence and had a little haberdashery store, and Margaret could open a little studio over the store and give singing lessons to the local kids."

Then there is Dewey. Dewey the immaculate. Dewey the formal. Dewey the orator. Dewey

NEWS — WITH WINSTON CHURCHILL WARNS OF WAR

with every hair of his mustache in its proper place and every thought of his a lifty one.

But now it is evening. Dewey is tired. Dewey is no longer the Governor of New York and the Presidential candidate, but Dewey the human being.

I wonder whether Dewey goes to the icebox at night and looks for a snack before going to bed. I wonder whether Mrs. Dewey, the gracious one, ever takes down her hair like your wife and mine and tells him he should buy his socks a half size larger so they wouldn't get so many holes in 'em, with all the running around he does.

It doesn't really matter an awful lot who sits in the White House, as far as I am concerned.

Being a very naive sophisticate I still believe in rule by the people, and thus I believe that the fellow who gets into the White House, is the fellow we deserve.

Oh, I remember now why I can't take anything very seriously today. I passed a cemetery this afternoon with hundreds of graves of people, many of whom had been quite important during the forty or fifty or seventy years of their lives.

And that cemetery was flanked by trees hundreds of years old and all still very much alive.

15,300 Slaughtered

WANTON SLAUGHTER of 15,300 Polish prisoners of war by the Russians, first documented in 1943, is described at Los Angeles by former Polish Army Capt. Bronislaw Mlynarski, one of the handful of survivors. Describing the slaughter as biggest military crime of the war, Mlynarski said "It was hushed up by military authorities, the president of the United States and by Winston Churchill because then Russia was our ally." Mlynarski, married to actress Doris Kenyon, is a brother-in-law of pianist Artur Schnabel. (International)
